

HOSPITALITY SPACES

The Steven Tanger Center for the Performing Arts offers a wide variety of spaces available for hosting hospitality events both inside Tanger Center and in the Tanger Center Administration Building located directly behind the theater.

The spaces are uniquely designed to accommodate varying group sizes and can be set in a variety of configurations to best serve the needs of your event. Catering, bar services, A/V services and more are available upon request.

PHILLIPS HALL

The Tanger Center's beautiful 8,000-square-foot limestone and glass lobby. The décor is highlighted by 'Genesis,' a hanging sculpture create by Latin American artist Mabel Poblet.

Phillips Hall can accommodate receptions for 400-500 people or seated events for 250-300 guests.

Used as our President's Club during Broadway season shows, the Lee Wrangler Lounge boasts a full-service bar and various seating options, as well as private access to the Joseph M. Bryan, Jr. Starlight Veranda overlooking LeBauer Park.

Capacity: 40 Luncheon | 100 Reception

Set centrally between the Lee & Wrangler Lounge and Brady Suite on the third floor, the Koury Family Grand View Room overlooks Abe Brenner Place and is the largest of our pre-function spaces. The Koury Family Grand View Room also plays host to pre-event dining for Broadway and select concert events. Visit TangerCenter.com/PreludeDining.

Capacity: 75 Luncheon | 150 Reception

Perfect for hosting pre-show receptions or meetings, the Brady Suite overlooks Elm Street and boasts dynamic views of downtown Greensboro.

Capacity: 36 Luncheon | 50 Reception

NEED A LARGER SPACE?

The adjacent Koury Family Grand View Room and Brady Suite can be combined to accommodate larger events and provide additional seating. Capacity: 111 Luncheon | 200 Reception

FOUNDERS' LOUNGE

Home to our Chair, President, and Leadership Founders during shows, the Founder's Lounge is on the second floor of Tanger Center and has floor to ceiling windows overlooking LeBauer Park. It also features two private restrooms and a dedicated bar with views of LeBauer Park and the Phillips Hall Lobby.

Capacity: 40 Luncheon | 50 Reception
